What are the Canstar Credit Card Star Ratings?

Canstar Credit Card Star Ratings use a sophisticated rating methodology, unique to Canstar, which compares credit card products in Australia and presents the results in a simple, user-friendly format.

Our rating methodology is transparent and extensive. The methodology compares all types of personal unsecured credit cards in Australia and accounts for an array of characteristics such as:

- Fees/Interest rates
- Premium Features
- Number of Free Days
- Reward/Loyalty Programs
- Standard Features
- No Frills

The results are reflected in a consumer-friendly five-star concept, with Five Stars denoting a product offering outstanding value.

What are the profiles used for Canstar Credit Card Star Ratings?

Canstar appreciates that credit card users have different spending habits and therefore value different features in their credit cards. In recognition of these differences, the Canstar Credit Card Star Ratings reflects a range of spending styles and credit card usage patterns.

Products specific to certain groups or with restrictions on eligibility are not included in the ratings. Business accounts are rated separately as part of the Canstar Business Credit Card Star Ratings.

Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible for a Star Rating in the Low Rate and Low Fee profiles, the product must have been on offer for at least six months. Products that do not have the required six-month information can only achieve a rising star. Rising stars are those products that would have received a 5-Star Rating but have not been in the market for more than six months. Rising star products will be formally rated in the next period once more historical data is available.

What are the profiles used for Canstar Credit Card Star Ratings?

Canstar appreciates that credit card users have different spending habits and therefore value different features in their credit cards. In recognition of these differences, the Canstar Credit Card Star Ratings reflects a range of spending styles and credit card usage patterns.

The Star Ratings methodology differs for each customer segment in terms of the relative importance placed on the fees and features of the products assessed. The table below provides a description on each profile.

Canstar has adopted five different credit card user profiles in an attempt to cover the majority of card spending and payment patterns. The Star Ratings methodology differs for each profile in terms of the relative importance placed on the fees and features of the cards assessed. For example, the methodology recognises that interest rates will be more important to those who rarely pay off their card balance each month than they will be for those who always pay the balance owing on their card.

How does it work? How are the ‘stars’ calculated?

Each credit card reviewed for the Canstar Credit Card Star Ratings is awarded points for its comparative costs and for the array of features attached to the card. These features include rewards programs, premium card facilities, repayment capabilities and conditions attached to interest charging.

To arrive at the total score, Canstar applies a weight against the Price Score and the Feature Score. This weight will vary for each profile of credit card usage. The weight will reflect the relative importance of either benefits / costs or features in determining an outstanding value card for the type of credit card usage.

$$\text{TOTAL SCORE} = \text{PRICE SCORE} + \text{FEATURE SCORE}$$

The table below outlines the weights allocated to price and features by profile:

Profile	Price Score Weight	Feature Score Weight
Low Rate	70%	30%
Low Fee	70%	30%
Premium	40%	60%
Rewards	70%	30%
Frequent Flyer	70%	30%

Price Score

Low Rate and Low Fee Credit Card

The Price Score for the Low Rate and Low Fee credit card profiles is based on the net cost of owning the credit card for 12 months, taking into account any annual fees and interest charged on accrued (revolving) balances. The lowest cost product will receive the top score.

Profile	Annual Purchases	Revolving Balance	Revolving Period (months)
Low Rate	$12,000	$6,000	12
Low Fee	$6,000	$750	2

Additional factors included in Price Score:

- ✓ Annual fee waivers based on specific spending behaviours.
- ✓ Average interest rate is calculated from previous six months of historical interest rates.

Not considered in Price Score:

- ✗ Promotional annual fee waivers.
- ✗ Rewards points (see Feature Score).
- ✗ Balance Transfer or Promotional Rate offers (see Feature Score).
- ✗ Additional Fees and charges (see Feature Score).
- ✗ Interest charging methodology e.g. Interest charged from purchase date, statement date, or due date (see Feature Score).

Premium Credit Card

Premium Credit Cards are those which have a number of extra features as per the eligibility requirements.

There is recognition of the value of reward points earned in the price score, but these reward points do not directly offset any annual fees and interest charges.

The Price score is calculated based on the Net Reward Return over 12 months, which is made up of two categories:

- The Reward Return score: The card with the highest reward return will receive the top score, which is a calculated dollar value of rewards earned by spend level, and the dollar value of free extras. Both traditional and frequent flyer rewards are considered.
- The Fees score for Premium cards is the net cost of owning the card for 12 months, taking into account any annual fees and interest charged on accrued (revolving) balances over 12 months. The card with the lowest costs incurred will receive the top score.

Annual Spend Profile	Monthly Spend	Revolving balance	Revolving Period
$24,000	$2,000	$1,000	1 month
$60,000	$5,000	$2,500
$120,000	$10,000	$5,000

Rewards Credit Card

Rewards credit cards are those that allow the cardholder to access one or more of the following types of reward schemes: cash, gift vouchers, lifestyle, food and beverage, merchandise and additional (charity donations, bank fees, etc).

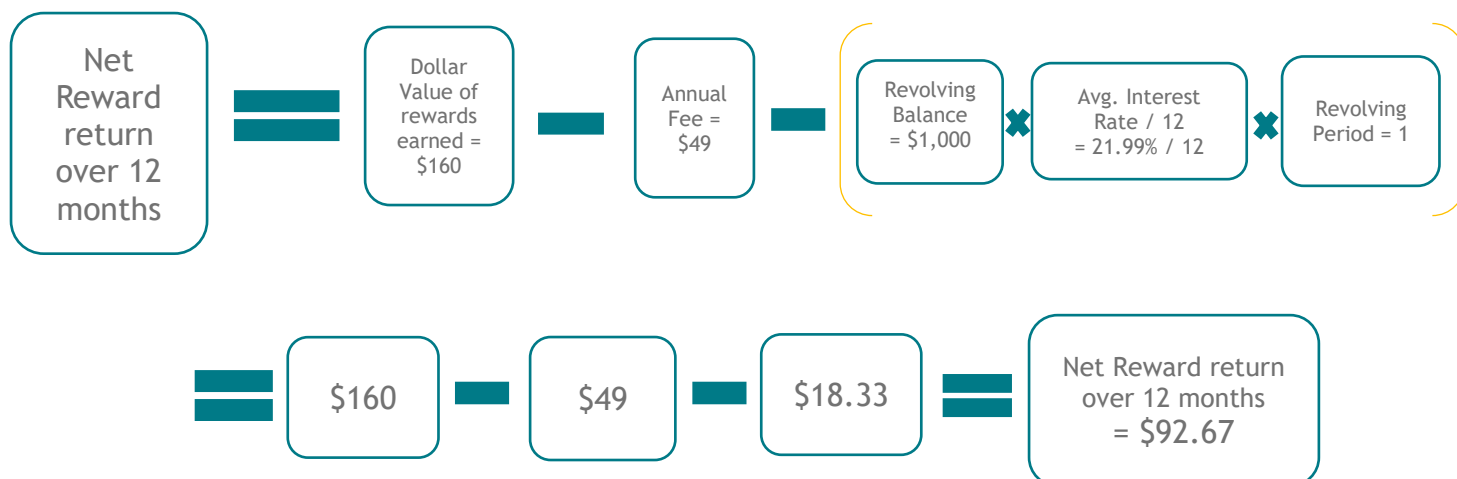

The Price Score for the Rewards credit cards is based on the Net Reward Return over 12 months. The card with the highest net reward return will receive the top price score. This is calculated by subtracting the net cost of owning the credit card for 12 months, taking into account any annual fees and interest charged on accrued (revolving) balances, and adding the dollar value of rewards earned.

Example calculation:

- 1 rewards point earned per $1 spent
- 150 points can be redeemed for $1 in cashback
- $24,000 spent in one year on the card
- $49 annual fee
- 21.99% interest rate
- One month of interest paid on an accrued balance of $1,000

$$\text{Dollar value of rewards earned} = \frac{24,000 \text{ points earned}}{150 \text{ points} = $1 \text{ cashback}} = $160$$

Annual Spend Profile	Monthly Spend	Revolving balance	Revolving Period
$12,000	$1,000	$500	1 month
$24,000	$2,000	$1,000
$36,000	$3,000	$1,500
$60,000	$5,000	$2,500
$120,000	$10,000	$5,000

Additional factors included in Price Score for Reward cards:

- ✓ Annual fee waivers based on specific spending behaviours.
- ✓ Bonus points earned at different merchants.
- ✓ Capping/tiered earn rates on spending.
- ✓ Liquidated damages fee in lieu of interest rate (for charge cards).

Not considered in Price Score:

- ✗ Promotional annual fee waivers (except when waived/lowered “for life”).
- ✗ Points/vouchers/other incentives available only to new customers.
- ✗ Bonus points earned through rewards program that are not exclusive to the credit card (i.e. scanning a rewards card barcode to receive bonus points—these bonus points can be attained without the use of the credit card)

Frequent Flyer Credit Cards

Frequent Flyer Credit Cards are those that allow access to accrue frequent flyer points and make redemptions through frequent flyer programs on one or more of the following return routes:

Origin: Sydney → Destination: Brisbane / Melbourne / Perth

Current airline programs considered include: Qantas, Virgin Australia, Etihad, Singapore Airlines, Malaysia Airlines, Emirates, Air New Zealand, Cathay Pacific, Thai Airlines, Delta Airlines, and American Airlines.

The Price Score for Frequent Flyer cards is based on the Net Flight Reward Return over 12 months. The card with the highest net flight reward return will receive the top price score.

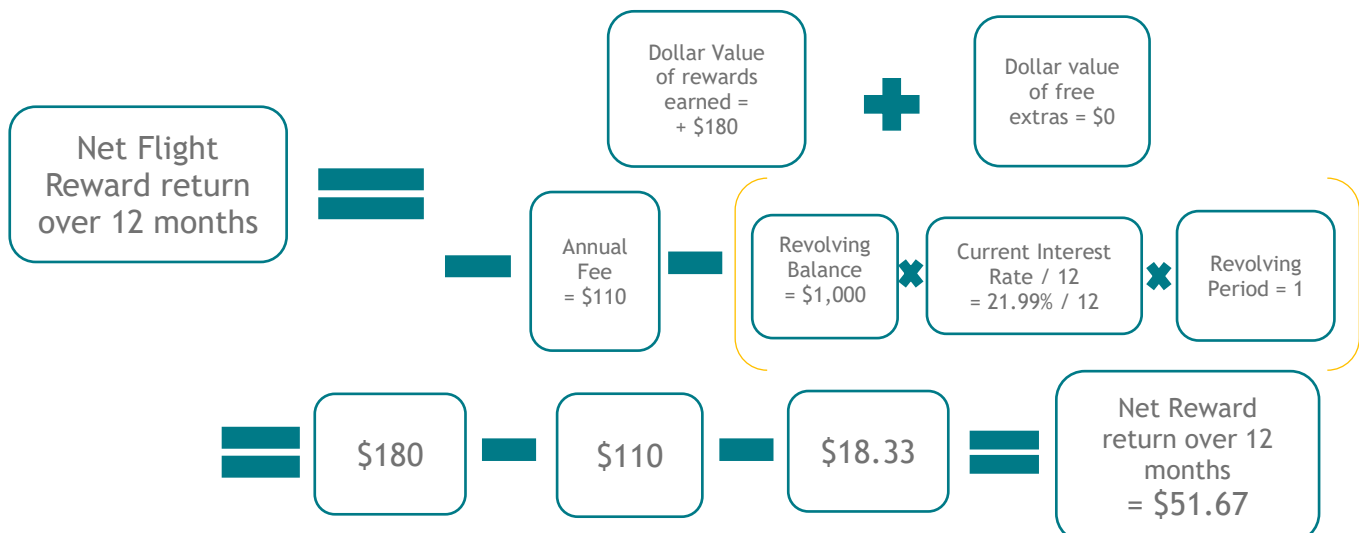

Annual Spend Profile	Monthly Spend	Revolving balance	Revolving Period
$12,000	$1,000	$500	1 month
$24,000	$2,000	$1,000
$36,000	$3,000	$1,500
$60,000	$5,000	$2,500
$120,000	$10,000	$5,000

Example calculation:

- 1 rewards point earned per $1 spent
- 1 reward point converts to 1 frequent flyer point
- $24,000 spent in one year on the card
- $110 annual fee
- 21.99% interest rate
- One month of interest paid on an accrued balance of $1,000
- No free extras

$$\text{Flight Reward Return} = \frac{24,000 \text{ frequent flyer points earned}}{24,000 \text{ frequent flyer points required for flight worth } $180} = $180$$

Calculating the reward return of flights by spend level

- Three routes are quoted from a number of different airlines
- Regular quotes are undertaken throughout the year to establish a market value for each flight route
- Routes considered are Sydney return to Brisbane, Melbourne, Perth
- If more than one airline partner is available, the lowest cost airline redemption option is considered for each route.
- The points you earn are redeemed against the market value of the route to determine the market value of the redemption

Additional factors included in Price Score:

- ✓ Lowest cost airline redemption option for three different routes
- ✓ Taxes, fees and airline charges levied on reward redemptions
- ✓ Market value of the flight (based on airline quoting)
- ✓ Free extras such as flights and travel vouchers (when offered on an ongoing basis)

Not considered in Price Score:

- ✗ Promotional annual fee waivers (except when waived/lowered “for life”).
- ✗ Points/vouchers/other incentives available only to new customers.
- ✗ Bonus points earned through rewards program that are not exclusive to the credit card (i.e. scanning a rewards card barcode to receive bonus points—these bonus points can be attained without the use of the credit card)
- ✗ Redemption of frequent flyer points for other types of rewards (e.g. gift cards or merchandise)

Other considerations taken:

Annual Fees

- Annual fee waivers included depending on spending behaviour profile.

Interest Charges on Revolving (Accrued) Debt

- Six-month average historical interest rate used in Low Rate and Low Fee profile.
- Where a charge card is included the “liquidated damages” fee will be considered in lieu of an interest rate.

Reward Return

- Reward return based on annual spend amount.
- Does not include bonus points that are not exclusive to the credit card (i.e. scanning a rewards card barcode to receive bonus points—these bonus points can be attained without the use of the credit card).
- Monthly and annual caps are considered as well as tiered earning structures.
- All airline transfer rates are considered where there are multiple options.
- Reward redemption rates are divided into seven categories: Cashback or statement credit, major retail shopping voucher, lifestyle, food and beverage, merchandise and additional rewards.

Free Extras

- Free extras are considered for inclusion where their value is measurable in dollar terms and where relevant to the consumer profile.
- Free flight or travel voucher considered as a free extra in the Frequent Flyer profile.
- Free extras must be ongoing (not sign-up bonuses).

Merchant Categories

Where credit cards offer bonus earn rates for spending at different types of merchants, an assumption is made that a proportion of total card spending will fall into one of six different categories:

Staple:	Supermarkets
Discretionary:	Department stores
Petrol:	Major petrol stations
Holidays:	Airlines, Tour operations, Car Rental, Travel Agencies etc.
Dining:	Restaurants
Other:	All other merchants where a 'standard earn rate' would apply

Purchases Per Annum	Proportion of spending / Purchases per week
	Staple		Discretionary		Petrol		Holidays		Dining		Other
$12,000	35%	$81	10%	$23	10%	$23	5%	$12	5%	$12	35%	$81
$24,000	30%	$138	17%	$78	8%	$36	5%	$23	5%	$23	35%	$162
$36,000	28%	$194	18%	$125	7%	$48	5%	$35	7%	$48	35%	$242
$60,000	25%	$288	19%	$219	7%	$81	6%	$69	8%	$92	35%	$404
$120,000	20%	$462	20%	$462	6%	$138	7%	$162	10%	$231	37%	$854

For companion cards, Canstar assumes that companion cards are used optimally when earning points, therefore, the assumption is that AMEX/Diners Club is used on Staple, Discretionary, and Petrol, whereas Visa/MasterCard is used on Holidays, Dining and Other.

For American Express and Diners Club cards, 40% of the "Other" spending earns no points, whilst the remaining 60% will earn points at the 'standard earn rate'. This recognises the lower rates of merchant acceptability of these cards.

Price Score Summary

Does Canstar rate all products in the market?

We endeavour to include the majority of product providers in the market and to compare the product features most relevant to consumers in our ratings. However this process is not always possible and it may be that not every product in the market is included in the rating nor every feature compared that is relevant to you.

How often are Credit Cards re-rated?

All ratings are fully recalculated every six months based on the latest features offered by each institution. Canstar also monitors rate changes on an ongoing basis.

How are the stars awarded?
